2024 Woollahra Small
Sculpture Prize Sponsorship
and Donations Package

The Woollahra Small Sculpture Prize (WSSP) is a significant national and international prize for sculptures of smaller dimensions. It consistently attracts strong support from artists, collectors and critics.

The WSSP was initiated in 2001 by Council to support, promote and celebrate artistic excellence and to engage with the community.

More than 500 sculptures are entered annually and to date, the Prize has attracted over 11,000 entries from emerging and profiled artists nationally and internationally. Prominent judges select the finalists' works, which are exhibited at Woollahra Gallery at Redleaf in the Spring.
